Why does God choose the most unlikely people for the job? 1. God often use the weakest among us so that we'd know how His power works. If He would always choose only the brightest and the strongest men, people may soon forget from whom true leadership and power comes from. People would look up to men instead of looking up to God.

God decided at a prior time to bring you to belief, to open your eyes, and to give you repentance. And then I would turn to Ephesians 1:4: "Even as he chose [i.e., elected] us in him before the foundation of the world." God decided to save you before he actually did it. He is not whimsical. He doesn't get taken off guard.

Question: "Why did God choose me?" Answer: In John 15:16 Jesus says, "You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you." Ephesians 1:4 says, "He chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight."
